Re: United States v. Yousef Barasneh
Case No. 20-CR-26

Dear Judge Pepper:

On December 21, 2020, the Court ordered the parties to file a joint status report by January 29, 2021 informing the Court of the parties' anticipated next steps. On that date, Assistant United States Attorney Ben Proctor and I discussed Mr. Barasneh's case and the joint status report to the Court due that day. Regrettably, I immediately forgot to draft the letter stemming from that discussion. I apologize for the delay in getting this to the Court.

During our call, Mr. Proctor and I discussed the progress that we have made on issues material to the sentencing process and the additional time we believe necessary to complete these tasks. Based on that discussion, I can provide the Court with this joint status report.

The parties continue to need some additional time to complete their work on several matters prior to sentencing. We believe that within 60 days we should be ready to re-schedule the sentencing hearing. Mr. Barasneh also agrees with this approach.

For these reasons, the parties respectfully ask the Court to order that within 60 days the parties shall obtain a new sentencing hearing date from the Court's chambers or file a joint status report letting the Court know their next anticipated steps and the additional time necessary to complete them.

Sincerely,

s/ John W. Campion
